South Suburban Recreation Centers feature Local Artists in July

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Goodson, Lone Tree, and Douglas H. Buck recreation centers are featuring temporary art exhibitions by local artists during the month of July.

Dustin (Dusty) Hagerty is a professional photographer whose photographs will be displayed July 1-30, 2013 at Buck Recreation Center, 2004 West Powers Avenue, Littleton, 303-797-8787. Dusty has traveled extensively photographing scenery, animals, people, buildings, art, and many other subjects. View his beautiful photographs as if you are traveling along with him on a summer vacation.

Donna Lefferdo is presenting an exhibit of an assortment of watercolor, acrylics and mixed media July 1-30, 2013 at Goodson Recreation Center, located at 6315 S. University Blvd., Centennial, 303-798-2476. Her painting style varies from realism to abstraction representing still life/floral, landscapes, architecture and abstracts. She uses vibrant colors and unusual textures to create dramatic effects. Come journey into the world of creative expression.

Amy Van Stensel's artwork will be shown July 1-30, 2013 at Lone Tree Recreation Center at 10249 Ridgegate Circle, Lone Tree, 303-708-3500. Amy specializes in botanical illustrations and oil paintings. Her work is exquisite as the attention to detail and the likeness to real plants are amazing. Take a lazy summertime stroll down the hallway at air-conditioned Lone Tree Recreation Center and you will think you are in a botanical garden.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to temporarily display their artwork at various South Suburban recreation facilities.
