South Suburban's Seniors Program Hosts Lunch and Speaker Series

Featuring Influential Coloradans

South Suburban's Seniors Program at Lone Tree Recreation Center is hosting a Lunch and Speaker Series tailored to active adults, ages 50 plus. The series, Individuals Who Influence, features individuals who have spent a lifetime in Colorado and have unique stories, knowledge and perspectives to share.

On Thurs., June 27 at 12 pm, guest Mike Madigan, author and former news editor of the Rocky Mountain News will discuss his book, Heroes, Villains, Dames & Disasters: 150 Years of Front-Page Stories from the Rocky Mountain News. The book chronicles Colorado's rich history in a unique and entertaining way. Madigan captures the flavor and feel of those years, including characters of historical or cultural significance, with original news reports and the actual front pages from the newspaper.

Cost of the lunch and program is $20/$15 resident; 65 yrs. + $15/$12 resident. Lunch will be served by Duffeyroll Cafe. Madigan's book will be available for sale following the program. Reservations are required by June 20. Register online at www.sspr.org or call 303-347-5999. Lone Tree Recreation Center is located at 9808 10249 Ridgeway Cir., Lone Tree.

Future programs include Jim Saccomano, Denver Broncos Vice President of Public Relations on Thurs, Aug. 1, and John Ostermiller, chairman of the board, South Suburban Park and Recreation District on Thurs., Aug. 29.
