

South Suburban Parks & Recreation Youth Commission Charter & Application

Revised January 2018

Purpose Statement

The purpose of the Youth Commission is to represent South Suburban Park and Recreation District teens in the local government process related to park and recreation services and to support a higher level of civic involvement by youths. To advise the South Suburban Parks and Recreation Staff on what is important to the youth and teens that live and play in the area and to have opportunities to volunteer and give back to the community.

Goals

- To fundraise for the Youth Summit
- To volunteer for three events in South Suburban Parks and Recreation and include friends and family
- To build relationships within the Youth Commission and community
- To promote Youth Commission and events throughout the community
- To provide opportunities for involvement in the community through a community project

Commission Structure

This Commission will serve in an advisory role to the Recreation and Community Services Department, who will then advise the Board on issues affecting youth when requested by the Board and/or the Executive Director, by providing a formal youth recommendation concerning the needs of youth.

Membership on the commission includes a minimum of 5, not more than 12 youth representing a cross section of the District. The commission reports directly to an appointed Recreation and Community Services Department senior level staff member. At Large members from other City commissions may be appointed.

All Commission members will be appointed by the SSPR Board of Directors for staggering 1 year terms or until his/her successor is duly qualified and appointed unless a vacancy occurs prior to the expiration of a term, wherein an appointment shall be made by the Board for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The members shall be eligible for re-election to the Commission for up to five (5) terms, as long as he or she remains active on the Commission and continues to meet eligibility requirements.

Criteria for Participation
