Sheridan Seniors Invited to Free Holiday Affair

At Sheridan Recreation Center

Seniors in the Sheridan community are invited to a free holiday affair featuring live entertainment, wellness checks and refreshments at South Suburban's Sheridan Recreation Center on Tues., Dec. 10 from 1-3 pm.

The afternoon program will offer seniors an opportunity to socialize and enjoy a chorale performance by Alice Terry Elementary students, and entertainment by the Sheridan High School choir. Refreshments and door prizes will be available. In addition, free wellness checks by University of Colorado student nurses will be offered.

The annual event, now in its fifth year, is sponsored by Autumn Heights Health Care Center, the City of Sheridan, Sheridan Police Dept., Sheridan School District and South Suburban Parks and Recreation.

Sheridan Recreation Center is located at 3325 W. Oxford Ave, across from Sheridan High School. For more information call 303-761-2241.
