South Suburban Recreation Centers feature Local Artists in June

South Suburban Parks and Recreation's Goodson, Lone Tree, and Douglas H. Buck recreation centers are featuring temporary art exhibitions by local artists during the month of June.

Cathy Lester is an internationally collected artist who realistically captures dogs, horses, elephants and other animals. Her artwork will be displayed June 1-27, 2013 at Goodson Recreation Center, located at 6315 S. University Blvd., Centennial, 303-798-2476. Cathy's lifelong passion for animals shines through in the detail of her pencil drawings of horses. Spend some time viewing and enjoying each drawing of her equestrienne subjects to see these magnificent animals in a whole new way.

Donna Lefferdo is presenting an exhibit of an assortment of watercolor, acrylics and mixed media June 1-27, 2013 at Buck Recreation Center, 2004 West Powers Avenue, Littleton, 303-797-8787. Her painting style varies from realism to abstraction representing still life/floral, landscapes, architecture and abstracts. She uses vibrant colors and unusual textures to create dramatic effects. Come journey into the world of creative expression.

Amanda Hardy's photography exhibit called "A New Path: An Introduction to Amanda Hardy" will be shown June 1-27, 2013 at Lone Tree Recreation Center at 10249 Ridgeway Circle, Lone Tree, 303-708-3500. Amanda uses a mixture of styles, such as black and white, sepia and color. Her landscape and architectural photographs provide a diverse collection of shots from their natural state to color adjusted for the sake of setting a mood. Visit this unique photography exhibit of 18-22 photographs and prepare to see a variety of shots from a single object of interest to a scenic landscape.

South Suburban's Public Art Committee encourages Colorado artists to submit an application to temporarily display their artwork at various South Suburban recreation facilities.
